Q.1

A.

Software testing is the process of evaluating and verifying that a software product or application does what is supposed to do.
Principles are testing shows presence of defects Exhausts testing in impossible, Early testing, Defect clustering, pesticide paradox.

B.

Verification: are we building the product right? (Review, walkthrough). Validation tests actual functionality

Q. 2

A

White Box testing tests internal structure.
statement Coverage. Execute all statements Branch Coverage.

B. Equivalence partitioning divides input into valid/invalid classes. Boundary value analysis tests boundary of these classes.